Steward-Poynter Nuptials

MRS. NICK POYNTER

Making their home in South Gate are Mr. and Mrs. Nick Poynter, whose April wedding took place at the Chapel of Precious Memories with Rev. Julian R. Greda officiating.

The bride is the former Diane Lillian Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart, 4127 W. 172nd St., Torrance.

Mrs. Treva Mullins of Kentucky is the mother of the bridegroom.

Baskets of white roses decorated the chapel for the double ring wedding. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of white lace over taffeta. Her short veil was held by a rose tiara and she carried a bouquet of orchids encircled by white carnations. Her only jewelry was a culture pearl, a gift from her bridegroom.

Mrs. Sandy Stewart was matron of honor wearing a beige brocade suit. Joseph Stewart stood as best man.

A reception was held at the New Horizons, after which the couple left for a honeymoon at Ojai.

The bride was graduated from North High School in 1964. Her husband was educated in Kentucky.

Annual Mother-Daughter Breakfast at Nativity

Two hundred mothers and daughters enjoyed the beautifully prepared Annual Mother-Daughter Breakfast sponsored by the Nativity Altar Society on Sunday, May 2, at Nativity Annex.

Rev. John P. Cremins, pastor of Nativity Catholic Church, welcomed the mothers and daughters. The affair under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Camp, featured family-style breakfast served at tables decorated by floral arrangements prepared by Mrs. Frank Di-Hope. Mrs. DiHope also arranged and donated two floral arrangements awarded as door prizes to Mrs. R. L. Moffitt and Marie Lincoln. Daughters presented with special door prizes were Jane Voeste and Judy Lewellen.

Presiding as Mistress of Ceremonies, Mrs. John Araiza presented corsage awards to Mrs. Margaret Barth as the mother with most years experience; Mrs. Joseph McCormick as the mother blessed with the most children; and to Mrs. James O'Brien, president of Altar Society, as the mother with the youngest baby. Mrs. Araiza also invited all women present to attend the May 18 meeting of the Altar Society at 8 p.m. at the Annex.

Special thanks were given by Mrs. O'Brien to the men, who helped prepare the breakfast. They were L. C. Cooper, Elles Cook, Robert Cook, Rudy Hanke and James Neary. Women also assisting were Mmes. E. Spring Fashion Show At El Camino June 3

"Re-enter Feminity" will be the theme of the annual Spring fashion show to be staged by the El Camino College home economics department June 3 at 1 p.m.

On completion of their "stitches in time," college coeds will model clothing prepared through fall and spring semester classes.

Commenting on the theme for the spring show, Mrs. Hattie Roberts, clothing instructor, predicts that soft fabrics, colors and detailing will be in evidence. She adds that the show will attempt to prove "it's fun to be a girl," while styles exemplify a "flair with flounces."

Styles will reflect work accomplished in the classes of Mrs. Roberts and Dr. Eleonora Petersen. The latter has written a brief fashion skit, "Individualism Reborn," which will introduce the afternoon's program.

Presented by members of Beta Lambda, ECC home economics club, the skit will
